

Debating Europe – Challenges and Opportunities over the next decade

Seminar 2: The implications for the UK of the sovereign debt crisis and Eurozone economic governance

In partnership with the European Commission Representation in the UK, the School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy (PISP), Queen's University, Belfast in association with the Northern Ireland Assembly and Business Trust (NIABT) are holding a series of six seminars to bring together policymakers, business representatives, politicians and other from the academic and voluntary sectors to discuss key EU policy issues and themes facing contemporary society in Northern Ireland.

Please register to join us at the second seminar where the guest speakers will be:

Dr Andrew Baker, Reader in Political Economy and a representative from the European Commission.

Date: Thursday 7 February 2013

Time: 12:00pm - 2:30pm

Venue: Long Gallery, Parliament Buildings, Stormont

Agenda

12:00 pm	Arrival/registration and networking lunch
12:30pm	Welcome remarks – Dr Lee McGowan, Senior Lecturer in European Studies, School of PISP
12:35pm	Dr Andrew Baker, School of PISP
1:05pm	European Commission representative
1:35pm	Question & Answer
2:30pm	Closing remarks – Chris Lyttle MLA, Chair of NIABT

Register attendance by 31 January 2013 to info@niabt.org or v.montgomery@qub.ac.uk

Supported by the European Commission Representation in the UK.

We look forward to seeing you