

Brexit, how could it affect Trade, Agriculture and Investment?

Date: Monday 16th November 2015, Time: 5:00pm, Venue: Room 115, Parliament Buildings

The Northern Ireland Assembly and Business Trust (NIABT), in partnership with the School of Politics, International Studies and Philosophy (PISP), Queen's University, Belfast, is hosting a briefing where an expert panel will discuss how trade, agriculture and investment could be affected by a Brexit.

The panel will include Nigel Smyth, Regional Director of CBI NI and Colette Fitzgerald, Head of the European Commission in NI and Chairpersons from Assembly Committees who have responsibility for agriculture, trade and investment.

The key issues to be discussed were identified by the audience at a previous event on 28th September.

Agenda

5:00pm	Arrival/Registration and Networking Buffet
5:30pm	Chair's Welcome Remarks Robin Newton MLA
5:35pm	Panel discussion chaired by Dr Lee McGowan, Senior Lecturer in European Studies, QUB Panel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Colette Fitzgerald, Head of the European Commission Office in Northern Ireland • William Irwin MLA, Chair of the Agriculture and Rural Development Committee • Patsy McGlone MLA, Chair of the Enterprise, Trade and Investment Committee • Mike Nesbitt MLA, Chair of the OFMDFM Committee • Nigel Smyth, Regional Director CBI Northern Ireland
6:15pm	Vice Chair's Closing Remarks Stephen Kelly

RSVP by:

5th November 2015 to Ivor Gibson at info@niabt.org or telephone 028 90418365.

We look forward to seeing you